Jack : Mom, can I go camping on August 20th?

Mom : On August 20th? Oh, Jack! No, you can't. You have a piano concert the next day, so you should get ready for it on that day.

Jack : That's right. I've forgot about it. How about August 27th?

Mom : You can go, but is that OK with your friend?

Jack : Yes. Tom said that I could decide the date.

Mom : I see. Enjoy yourself!

Jack : Thanks, mom!

Bob : Hi, Jane. Are you free now?

Jane : Yes, Bob. What's up?

Bob : I'm looking for Kumi's birthday present.

Jane : What does she like?

Bob : She says she likes to drink cocoa these days, so I'd like to buy a cup for her. What do you think?

Jane : Sounds good! Actually, she already has a pink one but it doesn't have a lid. She likes to drink while she is reading, so I think it's good to give her one with a lid.

Bob : That's a good idea. What color do you recommend?

Jane : She loves pink, you know, but I don't think you should give one of the same color. Mmm... how about blue? She likes blue, too. Also, she would probably like a large one.

Bob : Thank you so much! I saw a cup like that at the shop. I'll go and get it!

Boy : Next week, we have a school trip to the museum, right?

Girl : Yes. Mr. Jones told us to go there by ourselves.

Boy : I'm a little worried because it is my first time to go there.

We should be at the museum by 8:30. Will you go with me?

Girl : Sure. When I told my father about the school trip, he said he could take me to the museum.

Boy : Sounds good.

Girl : But he also said that the traffic in that area was bad around 8:00, so we should leave early.

Boy : I see. When the roads are busy, you never know how long it will take to get there.

Girl : That's right.

Boy : How about going by train? Let me check the time table. There is a train leaving at 7:50 from Midori station. It takes 30 minutes to get to Fuji station, and the museum is just in front of it.

Girl : That's nice. Can you come to my house at 7:40? We can then walk to Midori station together.

Boy : OK.

Hello everyone! I'd like to tell you about our volunteer club. We visit a retirement home, a home for elderly people, on the second and the fourth Saturdays. We enjoy talking with many people.

Also, we have been teaching Japanese to foreign students for a year. In our city, there is a Japanese class for foreign students at the city hall every day. We go there and teach them Japanese once a week. From next month, we are going to go there twice a week. It is difficult to teach Japanese because while we speak Japanese, we don't think much about the grammar. So, it is also a chance for us to study Japanese. We have had a great experience there. We would like to share this wonderful time with you. Let's enjoy working together.
