<対話文 1>

M : I am going to buy a birthday present for my sister. Can you come with me?

F : Sure, Jack.

M : Are you free tomorrow morning?

F : Saturday? Sorry, I'm not. My father comes back from his business trip. I have to go to the airport to meet him.

M : I see. Her birthday is next Friday. So how about next Monday or Tuesday?

F : Monday is better.

M : OK, let's go to the shopping mall near the station on that day.

Question : When are they going to buy a birthday present for Jack's sister?

<対話文 2>

F : Hi, John, which club will you join?

M : I haven't decided yet. I want to try something new. So, I'm looking for a club I can experience some Japanese culture.

F : Then, why don't you come and look at the kyudo club?

M : What is it?

F : It is Japanese archery. The students wear something called hakama. You can experience Japanese traditional culture there.

M : Oh, I can't wait! I will join the kyudo club.

Question : Why does John want to join the kyudo club?

<対話文 3 >

F : I need your advice for my English essay.

M : What is your essay about?

F : It is about the importance of peace. I went to Nagasaki for a school trip in May and learned about it. So I want to talk about that.

M : What is your problem?

F : Actually, I have already read some books and watched some videos on the Internet about Nagasaki but I feel I need something more.

M : Our history teacher is from Nagasaki and his grandmother experienced World War II. I'm sure he can tell you something useful. How about asking him?

F : OK, I will.

Question : What will the girl do next?
